773 it struck the sky. The sky became frightened and
821 raised up, causing a great commotion, and the trees were torn out of the ground.

776 To the family of Hatan, I will add the names of [771] some other anitos. The tendency is for them to lessen in scope, in number, and in interest (i.e.—toward monagony). First I will mention some good anitos.

776 Kaybacan is the guardian of the house. A feast,
577 pildap, is given to him upon completion of a new house.
342 Small spears are placed there in the house where he stays. Whenever there is meat, a small portion is placed on the spears. Otherwise the family will get [704] sick. No eels, deer, or mud fish are brought into the house; for the anito dislikes their smell and would run away, leaving the family to sicken and die.

776 Pilay is the guardian of the farm. He lives in 241 the granary. If a stranger touches it, he becomes lame. A small feast, pespes, is given to him at the beginning of the harvest.

Ambungan is the guardian of the rice harvest. Before harvest one must mix some burnt rice with shredded coconut and eat it under a certain big tree [821] where he is. If the owner does not do this, strong winds and rain will come and blow down the grain.

776 Danag is the guardian of the fishermen and hunters; while Ayan induces the wild pig to run into the trap; but Siwasion helps the wild pig and deer to avoid the hunters.

Daguan makes one strong to work, and Manglanbang is the guardian of the warrior; while Panugatang is the guide. Sangasan guards the entrance to the barangay.
